The Jackson Liberty Lion Marching Band has just finished up their New World Symphony marching season. The band consists of 93 members. Not only is it the largest since the school has opened but this has been the most award winning season. The Marching Lions have taken home 4 First place trophies and 3 Second place trophies. They also took an impressive 17 effect awards which consist of best music, best percussion, best visual, best auxillary, best overall, best color guard and best equipment crew. They also had the honor of being one of the first bands to march at the New Meadowlands Stadium in East Rutherford, NJ for the USSBA Yamaha Cup.

Now that the marching season is over the kids are still working very hard as they are transitioning into different ensembles. These ensembles include concert band, woodwind choir, percussion ensemble, and jazz band. The Liberty Jazz band currently holds the title of 3rd in the state of NJ. They are looking forward not only to their new season but to moving up to either 1st or 2nd in the state.

All of these kids have worked hard since practices have begun in July. Please come out and show your support for them and enjoy some amazing music. The woodwind choir performs on Thur Dec 9th at 7pm at Jackson Liberty High School Auditorium. The Concert band, percussion ensemble, symphonic band, and Jazz ensemble all perform on Wed Dec 22nd at 7pm at Jackson Liberty High School Auditorium.

Be sure to visit the band website at www.libertylionband.com for all of the news and updates about the band. Don't forget to click through the pictures from all of the performances.

Congratulations Marching Lions on a great and successful marching season, and good luck in all of your ensembles.

Thank You
